New York, June 10.—The action of the stock market indicated today the re-sumption of some important operations in the long side. apprehension was expressed in stock market circles that the recent course Refining company and the agitation for prosecution by the federal government under the anti-trust law might revive anxiety on the part of the investors in corporations and prejudice the movement to attract foreign capital into them.

Rates for call loans ranged from 2 per cent to above that figure. The Banks of England and France made strong returns today and the discount rate declined in Paris, while the Paris cheque rate on London advanced. A relaxation in the pressure on New York for gold is thus indicated. On the other side, however, a fall in New York exchange at Chicago to par compared with 35 cents per $1,000 premium a week ago shows an ebbing of the flow of currency to New York and gives the premonition of coming requirements of the movement of the country's crops. Rates for time loans for the long maturities have advanced a fraction, and maturities have advanced a fraction, and keener scrutiny of collateral in stock mar-ket loans by bankers was reported. Local Produce Market

Another week has passed without any noticeable change in the prices of provisionss, but the few changes which have been made are toward lower figures.

Fresh fruits and vegetables are now arriving on the markets daily in larger quantities and much better stock. Utah vegetables are now plentiful, and the California products are giving way to the local garden stuffs.

Flour and grain remain without change in price, and owing to the shortage in the supply of wheat the price of flour will continue high for some time. One dealer said there would not be a change in the price of flour until the new crop of wheat arrived on the market.

Fish, meats, poultry and eggs remain without change. The fish market is well supplied and affords an excellent variety to select from. Fresh eggs are rather scarce and demanding prices too high for the season of the year.

Chicago, June 10.—The wheat market was weak all day, with the exception of a brief period at the start, when prices cose to a point a trifie above yesterday's closing figures as a result of unexpected strength at Liverpool. The weakness became pronounced in the final hour and the July delivery was subjected to heavy selling pressure.

Bearish sentiment was due mainly to improvement in the fall crop as indicated in reports from Kansas. Nebraska and the Ohio river valley. According to some advices, the crop in kansas is improving as a result of recent rains, and harvesting will begin next week.

Floods in some sections of the southwestern states, however, were said to have wrought some damage to growing grain.
